

7 DAYS. NO WALLS.

A STUDENT DEVOTIONAL

DAY 1 - NOTICE

Matthew 22:37-39

TRUTH: Jesus connects loving God with loving people.

REFLECT: Who do I usually overlook?

PRAY: Jesus, open my eyes to people I normally do not notice.

DO IT: Notice one person today who usually stands outside your normal circle.

DAY 2 - FEAR OF PEOPLE

Galatians 2:11-13

TRUTH: Peter knew the truth, but fear of people's opinions changed his behavior.

REFLECT: Whose opinion most changes the way I act?

PRAY: Jesus, make me more concerned with pleasing You than impressing people.

DO IT: Treat someone the same whether your friends are watching or not.

DAY 3 - JESUS + NOTHING

Galatians 2:15-16

TRUTH: We are made right with God through faith in Jesus, not by proving we belong.

REFLECT: What extra requirement am I tempted to put on people before I accept them?

PRAY: Jesus, keep me from adding my rules to Your Gospel.

DO IT: Welcome someone without making them prove themselves first.

DAY 4 - THE WALL

Ephesians 2:14-16

TRUTH: Jesus is our peace. Through the cross He destroyed the dividing wall of hostility.

REFLECT: What wall do I keep rebuilding?

PRAY: Jesus, tear down pride, fear, bitterness, and exclusion in me.

DO IT: Cross one social boundary today: sit, talk, invite, or include.

DAY 5 - GOSSIP

Galatians 2:14

TRUTH: Paul cared whether behavior lined up with the truth of the Gospel. Our words should too.

REFLECT: Does the way I talk about people match the Gospel I say I believe?

PRAY: Jesus, make my words truthful, gracious, and clean.

DO IT: Refuse one gossip conversation. Change the subject or speak something gracious.

DAY 6 - LOVE + TRUTH

1 Corinthians 13:4-7

TRUTH: Biblical love is patient and kind, and it rejoices with truth. Love and truth belong together.

REFLECT: Where am I tempted toward cruelty? Where am I tempted toward compromise?

PRAY: Jesus, teach me to hold truth and love together.

DO IT: Tell the truth today in a way that protects another person's dignity.

DAY 7 - DO NOT REBUILD

Galatians 2:18

TRUTH: Jesus has torn down what separated us. Following Him means refusing to rebuild it.

REFLECT: What is one wall I want to leave down for good?

PRAY: Jesus, make my life look like Your Gospel.

DO IT: Take one concrete repair step: apologize, forgive, invite, include, or make peace.

NO WALLS. NO COMPROMISE. JUST JESUS.
